

Glen Ogilvie Public School is recognized for its contribution to Safe and Caring Schools Programming!

Glen Ogilvie Public School was recognized by the OCDSB Safe and Caring Schools coordinators, Nanci Burns and Lisa Stephens, for constantly modeling a school wide commitment and leadership in Safe and Caring Practices. Ms. Burns thanked the school administration and staff for all that they did to keep the heart in education. Glen Ogilvie is a school of character, which believes that the quality of our students' compassionate citizenship is equally important to our academic excellence.
